THOUGHTS FROM FATHER LAZARUS

Today marks the end of the Christmas season. It's time to remove those Christmas decorations and pack the Christmas tree if you use an artificial one. The manifestations of Christ we celebrate during Christmas time culminate in the baptism of the Lord. It is a good day to reflect on our own baptism and its significance for us. The day of Jesus' baptism was a watershed in his life; it marked a new beginning. On that day, he began his public ministry during which he gave himself fully in the service of God and all of God's people. On that day, Jesus launched forth as the one who came not to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many. As he set out on that momentous journey for all of us, he was assured of God his Father's favor, 'You are my Son, the Beloved; my favor rests on you', and he was empowered by the Holy Spirit, who descended upon him like a dove.

Our Lord's baptism is a vital moment in our story of salvation, where he joined with humanity in the humble outreach to God, and where the Father and the Spirit are seen and heard to be there with him. Our gospel says that "the heavens were opened," a powerful statement of the point of contact between heaven and earth. Later on, as Jesus completes his life-journey on Calvary, we read how "the veil of the Temple was rent in two," a symbol that we are not completely free to enter the Holy of Holies. Today's gospel has Jesus beginning a journey that each of us is asked to travel. It is a journey full of purpose, a journey of intent. We need a sense of purpose and pattern to our living. St Peter summarized the purpose and pattern of Christ's life when he said, "Went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him." We are each invited, personally, to make this purpose our own.

Though Jesus was baptized as an adult and we were baptized as children, our baptism was also a day of a new beginning for us. On that day, we were launched on the great adventure of becoming disciples of Jesus in our own time. On that day, we too were given an assurance of God's love and favor, and we too were empowered by the Holy Spirit for the journey ahead of us. On that day, we were caught up in Jesus' own very special relationship with God, and we became members of Jesus' family of disciples, the church. It is a moment of grace that has the potential to shape our lives in a very fundamental way, in a way that is in keeping with God's purpose for our lives.

Baptism is the beginning of a lifelong call. We spend the rest of our lives trying to carry out what it calls us to be. Some of us were baptized as children, but years later, we personally confirmed the implications of our baptism. It is as adults that we say personal 'yes' to the Lord who has blessed us from the start. It may be as late as our twenties or even later that we adopt that 'yes' with all our heart, soul, and mind. In those mature years, we can more fully hear the call of today's Reading from Isaiah, 'Here is my servant whom I uphold, my chosen one with whom I am pleased, upon whom I have put my spirit;' From the moment of our baptism, the Lord keeps guiding us, and as the Scripture declares, that word "does not return to me empty, without carrying out my will and succeeding in what it was sent to do." Like Jesus himself, today we turn our ears again to hear that baptismal call.

Have a Blessed Week. Fr. Lazarus Kirigia.

It's time for a new parish directory!

Pictures will be taken in the church hall:

Friday, Feb. 27th 2pm – 8:30pm

Saturday, Feb. 28th 10:30am – 5pm

- You can schedule your appointment online by following the instructions in the below flyer. There will also be someone in the back of church after Mass the weekend of Jan. 24/25 and February 14/15 if you need help setting up your appointment. Everyone who is photographed will receive a complimentary 8x10 portrait and a parish directory.
- If you're unable to schedule an appointment on Feb. 27th or Feb. 28th, you have the option of going to St. Mary's in Red Oak on Wednesday, Feb. 25th or Thursday, Feb. 26th from 2pm – 8:30pm and have your picture taken there. Since we are using the same photographers, this is now an option.

Any questions: please contact Maryanne Dailey (stpatsimogene@gmail.com)

Dear Church family,
It's time for a New Directory!

*Celebrating faith.
